The North Carolina
Songwriters Co-op

There is LIVE MUSIC at all receptions provided by members of The North Carolina Songwriters Co-op

The Co-op is a not-for-profit organization of over 100 talented songwriters and performers who hail from around the state and include folk, bluegrass, rock, blues, jazz, classical, and country musicians.

Directions

The art venue is located at JimGin Farm, the home of Debbie Meyer and Eric Brantley. The address for GPS is 150 Wild Horse Run, Pittsboro, NC 27312. Come down Wild Horse Run and go through the wood gate, and park to the right on the lawn or take the gravel drive to the left that winds around to parking in the horse pasture. Drive slowly. There are people everywhere. Contact Debbie at 919-357-6142 or writetoeloise@gmail.com.

For the 24th YEAR in a row, artists are coming together to exhibit their work at JimGin Farm for everyone to enjoy.

The opening party is Saturday, August 23rd and Sunday, August 24th from noon until dark. The joy continues with receptions August 30th, September 6th, 13th, and 20th, also running noon until dark. There is no admission fee. Each reception has live music, free food, and a vast array of art.

We have moved the food outside to an open-air tent, and will provide masks for anyone who wants to wear one to visit all of the art inside the house.

This show is a gift to the community and was founded to honor those affected by the events of September 11, 2001, and has continued to help connect us to make the world a better place through the vehicle of art.

As always, dogs are encouraged to attend as long as they stay on leashes. Dogs love art, and they will be so happy to see this show!

ARTISTS KEEP 100% OF SALES

and do not pay a fee to participate.
